OBITUARY.

Everett Nelson Stark. Everett Nelson Stark, for the past 35 years a resident of Fitchville, died at his home there early Saturday morning folhome there early Saturday morning following an illness of about 16 days.

Mr. Stark was born, a Bozzah on Dec. 2, 1842, the son of Lathrop Stark, a native of Bozzah, and Fanny A. Saxton Stark a native of Lebanon. Mr. Stark is of Scotch ancestry, his forbears coming to this country in 1659 and locating in various parts of New London county.

When a young man he bought the family interests in the Stark homestead after the death of his father. He worked this farm for many years, a large source of farm for many years, a large source of income being from a mineral spring which he located on the farm. Later he sold the farm and bought the place in Fitchville where he resided until his leath. He conducted a dairy business on the farm and under the most modern methods made a success of the business.
On Jan. 1, 1886, he was united in marriage with Nancle Matilda Avery, daughter of Elias Babcock Avery and Nancy Gallup Avery, Mrs. Stark died about five years ago.

Mr. Stark took interest in public matters and had held town offices and attended republican conventions. He had a liking for the study of medicine and a liking for the study of medicine and acted among his townspeople as a lay doctor. For years he was a member of the Bozrah Congregational church, but for the past five years had hardly missed a service in the Baptist church in Fitch-ville.

Surviving Mr. Stark are two children, a daughter, Mrs. William D. Thatcher, of Norwich Town, and a son, Nelson Lathrop Stark, who resided with his father. Mr. Stark was one of six children, only one now living, Mrs. Mary Bosworth, of Bosrah, widow of Rev. Quincy M. Bos-

Agnew, E. J. Brophy and E. J. Jones and
J. Dana Coit, D. D. Dince, E. J. Graham,
Howard L. Stanton and C. L. Stewart held a meeting during the past week and discussed several matters pertaining to any stanton and subsequent developments made it appear that Mrs. Flemming probably did the telephoning.

Soon after her arrival at the hospital, about f o'clock, Police Chief J. H. Buiger was notified by the hospital authorities. Later he interviewed the woman.
According to what the chief reported she told him she had left home or where she had been in the time she had dropped out of sight between Thursday and Saturday.

Mrs. Flemming's arrival at the Putnam hospital was preceded by a telephone memane to the hospital sherity before 3 o'clock that a woman patient was coming there. The person telephoning

BICHMOND RADIATOR PLANT

SHUTS DAWN INDEFINITELY The Richmond Radiator Co. plant on Thames street, employing about 225 men shut down Saturday. According to of-ficials of the local plant, the shut down is for an indefinite time and no predic-tion could be made of how long & might be.

The shut down, it was stated, had fol-lowed a suggestion made to the employes that a reduction in wages must be made. A conference between the efficials and the employes of the wage question is to be held next week, it is expected.

Ducked Just in Time,

"Look out below" shouted the man on the pole and Fred Jackson who was passing beneath ducked and ducked none too soon. There was a swish and a thud and, according to Mr. Jackson, a flery mass whizzed past his face and struck the ground. It seems that a repair man was fixing the wires on the pole at the corner of Boswell avenue and Franklin street on Sunday afternoon and as Mr. Jackson was passing some of the hot material he was using dropped to the ground, barely missing Mr. Jackson.
